

Leonard C. Vinci Sr.

Leonard C. Vinci Sr. of Doylestown died Tuesday, Dec. 13, 2011, at Abington Hospital. He was 62.

Born in Doylestown, he was the son of the late Nicholas and Angelina Jampo Vinci.

A graduate of Central Bucks High School, Leonard served four years in the U.S. Navy.

With a passion for music, he was an accomplished Jazz drummer, who played multiple Broadway shows and was also an adjunct Professor of Music at Arcadia University.

Surviving are his children: daughter, Christina and son, Leonard Jr., and his wife, Amanda; his brother, Nicholas and his wife, Marita; as well as his nephews: Justin and Richard. He is also survived by his fiancé, Arlene Storti.